Terrance J. Lillis

Terrance (Terry) J. Lillis is executive vice president and chief financial officer with the Principal Financial Group.

Lillis joined The Principal in 1982 as an actuarial student. He held various senior actuarial and management roles through 2000 when he was named CFO—Retirement & Investor Services. He was promoted to senior vice president and CFO for The Principal in 2008 and to his current position in 2014.

Lillis is a member of the Iowa Actuaries Club, the American Academy of Actuaries, and the Society of Actuaries. In addition to the Tippie Advisory Board, he also serves on the Mercy Medical Center Finance Board Committee, the Simpson College Board of Trustees, and the Diocese of Des Moines and Catholic Charities Finance Council.

An Iowa native, Lillis received a bachelor's degree from Simpson College in 1977 and an M.S. degree in statistics and actuarial science from the University of Iowa in 1982.