Why is it important to you to learn about other cultures?
Learning about other cultures gives me exposure to new ideas and prospects, and helps me keep an open mind and appreciate the differences and similarities in how we and others live.

If you could pick three things from your home country to bring to the US, what would they be?
1. Chinese cuisine (authentic and diverse food not only showing the culture diversity in China, but also representative of China's long history)
2. High speed trains (so I can travel from city to city cheaper and faster)
3. Tea ceremony (a great way to learn about Chinese culture)

Nominated by members of the Global Engagement Student Advisory Board as outstanding examples of globally engaged members of the Tippie community.

Why did you nominate Cheng?
"I have nominated Cheng because she is always happy to learn more about a new culture. I have worked with her as her partner at the VITA site last spring and her attention to detail and her people skills impressed me tremendously. I am also excited to work with her next fall when we start our full time career at Deloitte Minneapolis!"
