

Justin Johnsen

IT Manager
State Farm Insurance

Justin Johnsen is a Technology Manager with State Farm Insurance, currently leading financial processing and reporting, application modernization, and exploration of blockchain FinTech opportunities. He also has several years of experience in big data technologies/platforms, business analytics, data integration, data warehouses, and ERP systems.

He is active in his community, currently serving as a Board Member and Treasurer of the Heyworth Community School District. During his 6 years with the Board, he has also served as Vice President as well as with several committees, including Curriculum and Technology, Finance, and Board Development and Communications.

Justin has a Bachelor's degree in Accounting, Finance, and Economics from Iowa State University and has a Master's degree in Information Technology from Illinois State University. He also achieved the CPA, CMA, CLU, ChFC, and PMP designations.