

Devin Johnson

Human Resources Manager
International Paper

Devin Johnson is currently the HR Manager at International Paper's Flint River, GA mill. In this role he serves as a strategic business partner in support of mill operations at a paper mill with a team based, high performance work system. Prior to his career with International Paper Devin served five years on active duty with the Army as a signals intelligence sergeant with 5th Special Group.

Devin holds a bachelor's degree in Political Science from the University of Iowa, an Associate's Degree in Arabic Language from the Defense Language Institute, and a Master of Business Administration from Vanderbilt University.

In his free time, Devin enjoys hiking, bicycling, traveling, spending time with his nieces and nephew, and cheering for the Iowa Hawkeyes.
