

Erin Wonsmos, CPCU, AAI, AIS, AINS
Sr. Manager – Marketing

Erin Wonsmos is a May 2009 graduate of the Tippie College of Business where she received her Finance degree and certificate in Risk Management and Insurance. Upon graduation, Erin joined IMT Insurance, moving from a Business Analyst to the Marketing team. She is currently a Senior Marketing Manager overseeing external relationships, internal and external communications, advertising, and community relations for IMT's six state coverage. Erin enjoys perfecting her short game on the golf course, boating, and traveling to warm weather destinations. She is a proud supporter of the black and gold 365 days a year and honored to be a part of the Vaughan Institute's excitement for the next generations.
