

Christopher D. DeWolf

Co-owner, President, and CEO

Lil' Drug Store Products and Forefold Ventures

Chris DeWolf is co-owner, President, and CEO of the Lil' Drug Store Products (LDSP) family of businesses, a portfolio of consumer products and retail solutions companies, and co-owner of ForeFold Ventures, a family office focused on private investments and philanthropy. Previously, he held positions at the General Electric Company, including corporate finance, acquisition, and business development roles with GE Healthcare.

DeWolf is past-Chair and currently serves on the Board of Trustees of MercyCare Service Corporation, the parent company of Mercy Cedar Rapids' hospital and clinics, as well as serving on the Board of Directors for Mercy Hospital's Foundation. He is a member of the University of Iowa Center for Advancement Board of Directors, and serves on the Board of Advisors for Swinotech, Inc., a technology company focused on eliminating sow and piglet deaths. Additionally, DeWolf serves on the Board of Directors of the Consumer Healthcare Products Association, a leading voice fighting to ensure that Americans have access to over-the-counter (OTC) medications, dietary supplements, and consumer medical devices.

In 2011, DeWolf and his wife, Suzy, were honored as Junior Achievement of Eastern Iowa's Young Entrepreneurs of the year. In 2013, the couple was honored by the Association of Fundraising Professionals as the Outstanding Individual Philanthropists of the year. In 2021, Chris and Suzy were honored with the Howard Hall Excellence in Business Award, and honor bestowed by the Cedar Rapids Metro Economic Alliance.

DeWolf holds a B.B.A. from the University of Iowa and an M.B.A. from the J.L. Kellogg Graduate School of Management, Northwestern University. DeWolf and Suzy have three adult-aged children and live in the Cedar Rapids area.