

Andrew Mahoney, CPCU, AU

Executive Vice President

Relevant Experience/Specialization

Andrew Mahoney has the expertise and skill to add to his client's bottom line, designing programs that enable Willis Towers Watson clients to transfer catastrophic risk while managing the working layers of loss efficiently.

His more than 40+ years of insurance experience, proficiency in casualty, property, surety, benefits, market negotiation, and strong relationships with the insurance marketplace are value-added benefits to clients.

- Captive Insurance Company expertise
- Large primary and excess casualty expertise
- Property, inland, wet marine expertise
- London, Bermuda, and Cayman Island expertise
- Working knowledge of:
 - Benefits/Health Plans
 - Cyber Liability
 - Environmental Liability
 - Executive Risk
 - Professional Liability
 - Product Recall
 - Surety
 - Trade Credit
 - Data Analytics
- Vast understanding of WTW resources, including Centers of Excellence
- Extensive experience managing local, regional, national and international accounts

Role at Willis Towers Watson

After 20 years of running practices within WTW and another national brokerage firm, Andrew now leads large account business at Willis Towers Watson and remains part of the leadership team. He is responsible for production and overall account leadership. In addition, he is a mentor to younger team members.

Education and Credentials

Andrew earned his bachelor's degree in insurance from the University of Iowa and holds the Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) and Associate in Underwriting (AU) designations.

- Former Practice Leader at a national brokerage firm: 1989-1994
- WTW Minnesota Practice Leader: 1994-2008
- Willis Towers Watson Executive Team Member
- Willis Towers Watson Exceptional Producers Council Member: 28 years