

Wolfe Tone

Chicago Managing Partner &
Vice Chair-U.S. Deloitte Private Leader

As the Managing Partner of Deloitte's Chicago office, Wolfe Tone oversees more than 5,800+ talented professionals across Deloitte's Consulting, Audit, Tax, and Enterprise Services. His focus is to deepen the firm's local client relationships, cultivate a strong sense of culture and belonging among the company's professionals, engage actively with the business ecosystem of Chicago, and demonstrate Deloitte's commitment to the local community.

In addition to leading Deloitte's Chicago office, he serves as Vice Chair, US Deloitte Private leader. He is deeply passionate about the potential of private enterprises and the vital role they play in driving innovation and economic growth. That passion fuels his commitment to helping private companies navigate and thrive in today's ever-evolving business environment.

Tone and his wife reside in the Chicagoland area and are blessed with two wonderful children and a pair of very active Labradors. When he is not supporting his kids and their activities, he can be found fishing, golfing, traveling the world, staying physically active, and cheering for his beloved Iowa Hawkeyes and the City of Chicago's incredible sports teams.

Tone received his BBA in Accounting at the University of Iowa Tippie College of Business in 1996. Prior to joining the Tippie Advisory Board, he served as the president of the Professional Accounting Council at the University of Iowa.

He is currently a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Illinois CPA Society. He serves on the boards of the United Way of Metro Chicago (as Vice Chairman and Board Member), the Fred Mitchell Award Selection Committee, and the Strategic Advisory Council for Providence Catholic High School. He is a past member of the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame's Chicago Chapter.
