Nellie Nevarez

Nellie Nevarez (BBA ’97) is the Director of the Office of the President for the United States Tennis Association. In this role, Nellie oversees all activities of the USTA President, from supporting the volunteer structure designed to support our grassroots programs to serving as a liaison to our Grand Slam partners and the International Tennis Federation (ITF). Her team is responsible for the biannual USTA national conventions, and has twice hosted the ITF Annual General Meeting, welcoming federation presidents and executives from over 200 nations. She is also responsible for management of International Federation guests and the President’s Suite at the US Open, one of the highest-attended annual sporting events in the world.
