Drop Policy/Tuition Responsibility Schedule
The Graduate Management Programs, including MBA, Master’s of Business Analytics (MSBA) and Professional Certificate Programs, follow a different tuition responsibility schedule than the general University. You are expected to know and understand these deadlines and responsibilities.

The policy states that you can drop a course through MyUI up until 11:59 pm the day before the listed course start date in MyUI. Dropping after this point requires you to email the Graduate Management Programs Registration Office Tippie-Grad-Registration@uiowa.edu with the course name and reason for the drop. (Do NOT request a drop in MyUI.) If you drop a course on or after the listed course start date in MyUI, you will be responsible for a minimum of 10% of the tuition. The tuition amount you are responsible for paying increases over days/weeks spent in class. Details are explained in the Tuition Responsibility Schedule.

Not attending class does not constitute withdrawal. Failure to provide official notice of withdrawal, as outlined on the program website and in emails from GMP, may result in receiving a grade of F in the course.

Course Materials: If you drop before 11:59 pm the day before the listed course start date in MyUI, you will not be responsible for course material charges. If you withdraw after that point, you will be held to the full cost of any required course materials typically charged to your U-Bill (cases, simulations, course packets).
TUITION, PAYMENT OPTIONS, AND TUITION VERIFICATION

Tuition for the academic year is $700 per semester hour ($2,100 per 3 semester hour course). Notification that University Bills (U-Bills) are available for viewing on MyUI under “Student Records” (MyUI.uiowa.edu) will be emailed to your @uiowa.edu email address on approximately:

- Summer Semester - June 1
- Fall Semester - August 1
- Winter Term – December 1
- Spring Semester – January 1

Your U-Bill will state the exact date payment is due. Please note credit card payments are not accepted for tuition. The University Billing Office website (http://ubill.fo.uiowa.edu) contains additional information regarding your U-Bill and payment options.

Employer Deferred Tuition Payment Plan
If you receive full or partial tuition reimbursement from your employer, you have an option to defer payment of your tuition until after the semester ends. Only tuition charges are eligible for deferred payment. For more details, see the University Billing Office website in the “Employer Deferment” section.

For additional information on financing your education, visit Financial Assistance.

Financial Aid
If you are fully admitted to either the Professional MBA or Master’s of Business Analytics program, you may be eligible to apply for financial aid. (Students pursuing a graduate Professional Certificate or in PreMBA status are not eligible.) For detailed information about this topic, visit the University of Iowa Financial Aid website.

Enrollment and Tuition Verification
You may print an enrollment and tuition verification within MyUI, using the following steps:

1) click on the Student Information header located on the top gold bar of the MyUI home page
2) under “Documentation and Reports”, click on “Verifications”
3) select “Enrollment Verification”, “Grades/Tuition Report”, and/or “Class Schedule and Grades/Tuition” depending on your needs

These reports may also be used at the end of a semester when grades are finalized.
"NOT ANYMORE" TRAINING

Complete "Not Anymore" training
We are committed to creating a campus where all students can feel safe and successful. In support of this, The University of Iowa requires all new students to take a two part 'Not Anymore' sexual misconduct training. Even if you completed this program as an undergraduate or at a different institution. Not Anymore is an online, video-based sexual assault prevention program to prepare students with important skills and knowledge to address sexual misconduct (including sexual violence, sexual harassment, stalking, and dating/partner violence), safety, and bystander intervention.

Part 1 – You will receive an email sent to your Hawkmail (uiowa.edu) account approximately 3 weeks prior to the start of classes with information and instructions on how to complete this training. Part 1 takes roughly one hour to complete.

Part 2 – Approximately 3-4 weeks after the start of the semester you will receive an email sent to your Hawkmail (uiowa.edu) account with instructions on how to complete part 2 of this training. Part 2 takes roughly 20 minutes to complete.

The email containing instructions on how to complete this training will be sent from ui-ipv-prevention@uiowa.edu. Be sure to keep an eye on your Hawkmail (uiowa.edu) account so you don't miss important information. Please feel free to email ui-ipv-prevention@uiowa.edu with any questions.

Please note: Failure to complete both parts of Not Anymore training by the listed due date in your email notification will result in a hold placed on your registration until the training is complete. Your registration hold will NOT be lifted automatically. You must email your completion certificates, along with your student ID and HawkID, to ui-ipv-prevention@uiowa.edu. The registration hold will be lifted within three business days of receiving the required information.

TEXTBOOK INFORMATION

Textbook details can be found on your program’s website.

• Information on accessing any electronic course packets that are not available through Iowa Book & Supply will be available on your course ICON site

Course Material Charges
Many courses will use case studies or simulations in conjunction with or in place of a textbook. If the students are responsible for purchasing these cases and simulations, they will be listed on the textbook website.

Enrolled students who will have additional U-Bill charges will be notified via email both a week before the start of class and after the charge has been applied. The approximate cost of these charges is posted on the textbook listing website every semester. Any student who drops this course prior to midnight the day before the first day of the class (i.e., you must drop the course by 11:59 p.m. the day before the course starts) will NOT be assessed this fee. If you drop the course thereafter, you will be assessed the full charges.

Course material charges are not eligible for Employer Deferment.
