

Curtis K. Lane

Co-founder and Portfolio Manager
Concordant Partners

Curtis K. Lane is the co-founder and portfolio manager of Concordant Partners LLC, a long/short hedge fund in Omaha, Nebraska.

He served as an infantry sergeant in Viet Nam and Cambodia in 1969-1970. He earned two BBA degrees from the University of Iowa in 1973 in finance and insurance. He also received an MBA from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in 1974.

Curt is a member of the University of Iowa Center for Advancement Board of Directors, is a board member and investment chair of the Iowa Scholarship Fund, and is president of the Senior Alumni Scholarship Fund in his hometown of Atlantic, Iowa.

He received a Distinguished Alumni Award from the UI Alumni Association in 2012 and the Hawkeye Distinguished Veteran Memorial Award in 2016. He and his wife, Carol, were co-chairs representing the Tippie College of Business for the For Iowa. Forever More. comprehensive campaign.