

Jeffrey D. Lorenger
Chairman, President, and CEO
HNI Corporation

Jeffrey Lorenger was named president and CEO of HNI Corporation in June 2018 and chairman of the board in February 2020. He was previously president of office furniture for the corporation, where he was responsible for the HON, Allsteel, Gunlocke, HBF, Maxon, and Paoli businesses.

Lorenger joined HNI Corporation in 1998 and has since held multiple executive-level positions, including vice president of sales and marketing for the HON Company; vice president, general counsel, and secretary for HNI Corporation; vice president of seating, vice president of marketing, and vice president of member & community relations, all at Allsteel.

Prior to joining HNI Corporation, he spent several years practicing law with the firm Gray Plant Mooty in Minneapolis, Minnesota, in the area of general corporate transactions.

Lorenger and his wife Lisa (also a Tippie graduate) have three children and live in Iowa City, Iowa.