

Jack B. Evans

Chairman of the Board

The Hall-Perrine Foundation

Jack Evans is the chairman of the board of the Hall-Perrine Foundation, a private philanthropic corporation in Cedar Rapids, Iowa that focuses its giving on needed capital and infrastructure projects in Linn County. Evans was the Hall-Perrine Foundation's president for 21 years.

Prior to joining the foundation in January 1996, he was president and chief operating officer of SCI Financial Group, starting with the regional financial services company in 1972.

Evans earned a B.A. from Coe College in 1970 and an MBA from the University of Iowa in 1972. Currently, he serves on the board of directors of Nuveen Mutual Funds and is chairman of the board of directors of United Fire Group. He is a trustee of the United Way of East Central Iowa and a member of the Tippie Advisory Board.

He is past chairman and life trustee of Coe College and the Iowa College Foundation. He is also past public member of the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery Inc. Other past board activities include Alliant Energy, Brucemore Inc., Cedar Rapids Airport Commission, Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, Four Oaks, and the Board of Regents for the State of Iowa. He is a former member of the Chicago Stock Exchange.

Evans and his wife, Nancy Evans, live in Cedar Rapids and have three grown sons, two daughters-in-law, and three grandsons.