

Stacey Vally Panayiotou

Executive Vice President, Human Resources
Graphic Packaging International

Stacey Vally Panayiotou serves as the executive vice president of Human Resources for Graphic Packaging International. In this role, she is responsible for leading the end-to-end function, inclusive of corporate communications. Reporting to the president and CEO, she plays a critical role in enabling the company strategy through its 18,000 employees across 70 locations in the Americas, Europe, and the Pacific Rim.

Prior to her role at GPI, she spent 13 years with The Coca-Cola Company, where she held a variety of senior HR leadership roles, including global vice president and head of Talent and Development and vice president, HR, Europe, Middle East, and Africa, which consisted of over 120 countries. Prior to her global talent position, she served as vice president of Talent and Development, Organizational Effectiveness and Diversity and Inclusion, and Learning for the Coca-Cola North America Group. Prior to that, she was vice president of HR for the West business unit of Coca-Cola Enterprises Inc. (CCE) and worked in corporate HR with The Coca-Cola Company.

Panayiotou holds two master's degrees from Loyola University Chicago (Institute of Human Resources & Industrial Relations) and a Bachelor of Business Administration from the University of Iowa. She is married to Drew Panayiotou and has one son, Alex. In her free time, she loves to spend time enjoying the outdoors, gourmet cooking, and volunteering.
