

Wolfe Tone

US Tax Leader, Deloitte Private
Tax Partner, Chicago
Deloitte Tax, LLP

Wolfe Tone is the US tax leader of Deloitte Private as well as a tax partner in the firm's Chicago office.

Over his career, he has served a variety of technology, life science, retail, real estate, manufacturing, and distribution clients, ranging from Fortune 500 multinational organizations to start-up ventures. For the past two decades, Wolfe has concentrated his professional efforts on advising complex family-owned organizations and private equity portfolio companies.

As a trusted advisor to his clients, Wolfe has led multi-disciplined engagement teams that provide a variety of tax and non-tax services around the areas of corporate restructurings, mergers and acquisitions, due diligence, IPO planning, finance transformation, tax compliance, and tax controversies assistance.

In addition to serving clients and leading Deloitte Private in the US, he also has the following leadership roles: Global Deloitte private company tax leader, senior advisor to the global executive committee for Deloitte Private, member of the US Deloitte tax leadership group, member of the Chicago tax leadership team.

Wolfe has authored a number of articles on the impact of the 2017 Tax Act and has been interviewed by the Wall Street Journal, Politico, The New York Times, The Economist, and Investment News on various tax matters that impact privately held businesses.

His professional affiliations include the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Illinois CPA Society.

In his community, Tone is vice chairman of the United Way of Metro Chicago, a board member to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame, and member of the Fred Mitchell Award Selection Committee.

Tone received his BBA in accounting at the University of Iowa Tippie College of Business in 1996. He is the former president of the college's Professional Accounting Council.