Honor Code Offenses

All non-academic violations are referred directly to the Office of Student Life on the UI campus and the Academic Director of the CIMBA Undergraduate Campus for students participating in CIMBA.

Academically dishonest behaviors include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Cheating includes:

   A. Unauthorized use of notes, computers, calculators, translators, cellular telephones, texts, or other aids during a quiz or exam.

   B. Copying the work of others and/or allowing others to view your answers or copy your work during a quiz, exam, or on homework.

   C. Communicating with a classmate without authorization during a quiz or exam.

   D. Continuing to work on a quiz or exam after time is called.

   E. Allowing other parties to assist in the completion of your quiz, exam, homework, paper, or project when not permitted.

   F. Copying or using answer keys and solution manuals without the authorization of the course instructor.

2. Plagiarism includes:

   - When a student takes language, ideas, or other material without acknowledging their source with respect to all course assignments and materials. (Adapted from the Council of Writing Program Administrators definition of plagiarism).

   - When any member of a group takes language, ideas, or other material without acknowledging their source for a group project or assignment. With respect to any plagiarism found in group submitted work, each individual group member may be held fully responsible and will at least be held partially responsible for the plagiarism.
• When a student makes multiple submissions of the same or nearly the same assignment in more than one course without prior approval from the instructor.

3. Unauthorized Collaboration includes:

- Working with other students on homework, projects, or other course assignments without authorization from the course instructor.

_Instructors are expected to specify in writing on the assignment or the syllabus the amount of collaboration that is allowed. Students are expected to check with their course instructor if they have any questions about what constitutes authorized collaboration._

4. Obtaining an Unfair Advantage includes:

   A. Stealing, reproducing, circulating, using or otherwise gaining access to quiz, exam, or homework materials prior to the time authorized by an instructor.

   B. Retaining, possessing, using, or circulating previously given quiz, exam, or homework materials when those materials are to be returned to the instructor.

   C. Intentionally obstructing or interfering with another student’s academic work or otherwise undertaking activity with the purpose of creating or obtaining an unfair academic advantage over other students’ academic work.

5. Forgery includes:

   A. Altering a score, grade, or schedule change on an academic record.

   B. Forging the signature of an instructor, advisor, dean, or another student.

6. Facilitating Academic Dishonesty includes:

   A. Helping or attempting to help another individual commit an act of academic dishonesty.

7. Misrepresentation includes:

   A. Providing false information on your resume including work history, academic performance, leadership activities, or membership in student organizations.
B. Failure to provide information regarding academic performance or enrollments such as not providing transcripts from any college or university in which you have enrolled regardless of whether or not you completed coursework.

C. Failure to provide full disclosure or providing false information about job interviews and other reasons for class absences when asking faculty for excused absences or for a make-up for a quiz, exam, or homework.
